

Chesapeake Bay Preservation Overlay District

The Chesapeake Bay Preservation Act was passed by the Virginia General Assembly and signed into law in 1988. The Act is designed to reduce nonpoint source pollution in the Bay and its tributaries by requiring best management practices for development within environmentally sensitive areas. Accomack County's Chesapeake Bay Preservation Overlay District was adopted on January 1, 1992.

Requirements:

(to be added)

Permit Application Process:

(to be added)